

Human Resources

Advertising Service

Our service provides schools with access to an experienced advertising team that has specialist knowledge of recruitment advertising in the schools sector.

The services offered include:

- advice with advert copy – not to include advice on salary, hours or Terms and Conditions of Service – which should be sought from relevant HR teams
- advice and quotation service on relevant media e.g. TES and advertising packages – both print and web
- advert receipt confirmation, normally within one working day, from a dedicated schools advertising email inbox
- access to composite, display, lineage or run of paper advertising
- media booking
- media information, such as circulation and readership
- information and access to special offers and discounts
- full design and typesetting service
- for Suffolk County Council schools the ability to be charged direct to a cost centre – which saves processing invoices
- access to SuffolkJobsDirect Suffolk's foremost recruitment website for the schools, public and not-for-profit sectors

Availability

This service is available to all schools in Suffolk subject to our terms and conditions.